The State of Antisemitism in America 2025: AJC's Survey of American Jews

American Jewish Committee (AJC) is the global advocacy organization for the Jewish people. AJC's State of Antisemitism in America 2025 Report: Survey of American Jews, conducted by the research company SSRS, is based on interviews conducted online and by telephone from September 26 - October 29, 2025, among a nationally representative sample of 1,222 Jews aged 18 or older. Online interviews were conducted via the SSRS Opinion Panel^[1], as well as with additional sample; telephone interviews were conducted via SSRS Omnibus callback sample^[2]. The margin of error for total respondents is +/-3.7 percentage points at the 95% confidence level. Find the methodology report here. AJC is a non-partisan organization that neither supports nor endorses candidates for elective office.

Please note: certain sums may not total 100% due to rounding^[3].*

^[1] SSRS Opinion Panel members are recruited randomly based on nationally representative ABS (Address Based Sample) design (including Hawaii and Alaska). Additionally, the SSRS Opinion Panel has recruited hard-to-reach demographic groups via the SSRS Telephone Omnibus survey platform. Prior to July 2019, the SSRS Opinion Panel was recruited entirely from the SSRS Telephone Omnibus. For more information: <https://ssrs.com/opinion-panel/>.

^[2] This was a prescreened sample from our Telephone Omnibus survey, which was a national, weekly dual-frame bilingual telephone survey designed to meet standards of quality associated with custom research studies. Similar to previous surveys, we included samples where someone in the household had been identified as Jewish in a previous Omnibus survey.
